APRIL 2019 NEWSLETTER

THANK YOU!- to the many volunteers who helped move the Library. And to Director, Mindy Baker, for making it a smooth and well organized transition.

New Computers obtained from a Community Foundation Grant:

The Worcester-Schenevus Library would like to extend a thank you to the Pickert-Hickock Fund of the Community Foundation for South Central New York for providing the grant which allowed us to purchase the new patron computers for the library. With their generous funding, we were able to expand the number of computers available at the library.

Alternate Saturdays, 5 - 8 pm (April 6 & 20)

If you've been inclined toward nerd things, you've probably heard of "Magic: The Gathering." It's the game that still remains the number one customizable card game out there. The fun of Magic is the changing environment and trying new ways to win. New players are always welcome. For ages 13 – adults.

Thursday Book Club

April 19th at 6 p.m. in the Library conference room. The group will discuss "Book of Joy" by the Dalai Lama and Bishop Tutu.
All are welcome.

STORYTIME and Activities
Wednesdays, 10 am

Crochet Circle

Last Tuesday (April 29) at 10 am

Library Used Bookstore

New Location: 168 Main Street

Opening Day: Sat., April 6th

10 am- 2 pm • Refreshments

All funds benefit the Library

Large book donations should be brought to the bookstore on Saturdays, not to the Library. Please do not leave donations outside.

Books we cannot accept: dictionaries, text books, encyclopedias, health or medical books before 2016, condensed books, moldy or in poor condition. Thank you.

Unacceptable books can be dropped at the book recycling bin in the Community Library parking lot in Cobleskill - (open 24/7).
