JUNE 2019 NEWSLETTER

A UNIVERSE of Stories Summer Reading Program

Kickoff is Friday, June 28th from 3 - 5 pm

Sign up is for kids and adults. A brochure of programming will be available. Summer-end prizes for all participants. Keep students reading through the summer - they will be better prepared for school in the fall if they do.

View our Display case: Memorabilia from the career of Jim Konstanty

A Worcester resident, Konstanty was a MLB pitcher for the Philles ("Whiz Kids") and was awarded Most Valuable Player in 1950.

The Library thanks the Worcester Historical Society for their collaboration on this presentation.

***** Art Exhibit on the 2nd floor *****

Everything You Always Wanted in a Can

Multi-media artist, Howard Better has been making collages on cans for almost a decade. His use of a mass produced object (the can) contrasts with the individuality of each "label" (recycled collage images). Viewers are encouraged to handle the cans to see all angles and the insides.
