MARCH 2021 NEWSLETTER

COVID safety guidelines are still required at the Library and Bookshop. We appreciate your cooperation.

AUTHOR

OF THE MONTH

Joanne DeMaio

Stretch your reading preferences. The Library will display a different author every month.

These authors are recommendations by our staff and patrons that we think deserve a read.

Handmade Quilted Tote Bags

We still have a selection of one-of-a-kind tote bags for sale. Made and donated by the Quarter Inch Club.

Celebrate WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

Beginning March 8th (International Women's Day) our display case will highlight the lesser-known women who made significant contributions with very little or no recognition.

Emily Warren Roebling - completed construction of the Brooklyn Bridge

Winifred Goldring - first female State Paleontologist

Ada Lovelace - first computer programmer (in 1843!)

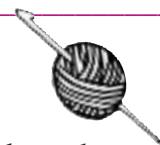

Isabelle Kelly - developed the first food stamp program for the poor

Melitta Bentz - inventor of the coffee filter and others....

Crochet Circle

Wednesdays at 4 pm

Beginners are always welcome. Please let us know if you are coming (send an email to wo.ill@4cls.org)

The Friends of the Worcester-Schenevus Library thank all the individuals, families, and businesses that contributed to our 2020-21 Membership Drive. Funds raised have been used to cover the matching part of a grant for the air conditioning unit. Funds will also be used for upcoming library needs.

Please support the businesses that support the Library:

| | | |
|-----------------------|-------------------------|------------------------|
| Bank of Richmondville | Community Bank, N.A. | Plantagious |
| Brooklyn Boy Hair | Kenyon Insurance Agency | Stewart's Shops |
| Charlotteville Realty | Otsego County Patrons | Tauzel Farms (in kind) |
| | Parshall & West Law | |

LIBRARY USED BOOKSHOP

Every Saturday
10 am - 3 pm

We appreciate all the book donations but we have limited room and cannot accept: text books, dictionaries, encyclopedias, outdated medical or travel books, moldy or badly worn books.

Thank you!

Note: Because of the increase in Covid cases, the library board meetings will be conducted over Zoom until further notice. The next meeting is Feb. 10th at 6 pm. All meetings are open to the public. Go to the website for instructions.
