ART EXHIBIT OPENING SEPT. 14

The late Roberta vonHahmann is proof that it's not too late to pursue a passion. With the death of her husband at 69, she took her art more seriously and studied with noted artists. With more than 140 paintings to her credit, vonHahmann is known best for her portraiture and local landscapes. She lived in East Worcester and died at the age of 103 in 2019.

This exhibit is courtesy of the artist's daughter.

Stephen King is considered one of the all-time great writers of horror, suspense, crime, sci-fi & fantasy novels. Many have been made into blockbuster films. If you haven't read King, maybe now is the time...before it's too late...
