ART EXHIBIT: Judith Snedeker Jaquith

January 4th – February 19th

Opening Reception:
January 15th, 2 – 5 pm

A self-taught artist, Judith works primarily in oil landscapes and acrylic abstracts. Her work shows her love of wide open spaces, sky and the abstract quality of color. She has shown at the Cooperstown Art Association Gallery in Cooperstown and some of her work is now hanging in the Art Gallery at Hidden Memories on Main Street, Worcester. Judy has also shown her work in several venues in New Jersey.

AUTHOR OF THE MONTH

TERESA MILLIAS

A native of Worcester, Teresa Millias started writing short stories after retiring from teaching. Her stories of rural America tell tales of hearth and home with a wide array of characters. Insights are offered in a literary, conversational style with profound messages to the open-hearted. There are nine books in her Lone Moon Creek series.

• LIBRARY USED • Every Saturday
